Hood's Sarsaparilla

Gives the system the best preparation for the hot waves of summer which are so enervating to the weak and run-down. Take it this spring.

In this spring.

In the second to such committee as the assembly may deem proper, which shall consider whether some plan cannot be devised for articulating and unifying all our home mission work."

Change of Name Suggested.

Also this recommendation, with reference to the executive committee of as the assembly may deem proper, which shall consider whether some plan unifying all our home mission work."

Get it to-day in usual liquid form or in the tablets called Sarsatabs.

LYONS ELECTED MODERATOR TO

order at 3 o'clock with Dr. Clyce, re- these conferences. order at 3 o'clock with Dr. Clyce, fetting moderator, in the chair. After the opening prayer by Rev. John L. Allison, of Alexandria, Va., and the calling of the names of the commissioners enrolled, Dr. Clyce announced that the assembly was ready for the clection of the moderator.

"We commend the hearty co-operation of the executive committees in these conferences, as evidenced in their assignment of a part of their secretarial force to this work.

"We recommend that the campaign committee on evangelism and stewardship be continued for another year; that the plan to raise $500,000 for

The names of the nominees were the first called, and after announcing their vote they retired from the room throughout the remainder of the ballot.

Named on Fourth Ballot,
There was no election antil tife fourth ballot had been taken, and the result then was that Dr. Lyons received announced the result of each ballot, and when Dr. Lyons had been elected Rev. A. P. Gregory, D. D., of Corners.

The report on the Sabbath and family religion was presented, also the report on Bible cause.
The assembly took recess at 5:30 o'clock until 8 o'clock this evening.
No session of the assembly was held this evening, but the commissioners of the Northern Presbyterian, the United Presbyterian and the Associated Reformed Presbyterian Churches took part also.
Rev. A. P. Gregory, D. D., of Corners.
Rev. R. O. Flinn, D. D., presided and there were short addresses of fraterand when Dr. Lyons had been elected Rev. A. P. Gregory, D. D., of Corners-ville, Texas, escorted him to the platform, where Dr. Clyce presented to him the gavel and expressed his pleasure that Dr. Lyons was his successor in this office, which is the highest honor the church can bestow upon a sponsibility for International Peace," J. A. McDonald, of Canada, editor of words and then expressed his appreci-ation to the assembly for the honor had conferred upon him, Rey. rooks I. Dickey, of San Antonio, Tex., First Business Before Presbyterinu As-

Synod of Texas, had been constituted Synod of Texas, had been constituted under the name of Fort Worth, and that the Presbyteries of Memphis and Western in the Synod of Tennesses.

was held to-night. More than fifteen commissioners from the Northern, the commissioners from the Northern, the southern, the United and the Associate Reformed Churches were present at the first joint assembly ever held in the first joint assembly ever held in the history of these organizations.

Dr. Stone's election as moderator by the Northern Presbyterian Assembly the Presbyterian Assembly the Northern Presbyterian Assembly the Presbyterian Assembly the Presbyterian Assembly the Presbyterian Assembly the Presbyter Presbyterian Assembly the Presbyter Presbyte as foreign mission committee having, as a result of investigation into actual cost, fixed $1,200 as the amount necessary to be raised for the annual support of each missionary sent out, in addition to the expense of travel and equipment, were recommended that those supporting missionaries be urged by the assembly as soon as possible to come up to this standard.

used means and energies."

"We recommend that the assembly, the debt having been paid, expressly who had not even been informed that whe had not been publicly mentioned as a possibility for the high office. His was the last name placed before the assembly, other candidates being Dr. William McKiblin, of Lane Theological Seminary, Clicimati, Ohio; Dr. Howard Agnew Johnston, of Stamford, Conm. and Dr. S. S. Palmer, of Columbus, Ohio. In proposing the nomination of Dr. Stone, W. R. King, of Monmouth, Ill., stated that he placed before the assembly and nan who not only had never been mentioned as a candidate, but who had not even been informed that the debt having been paid, expressly who had not even been informed that approve the present policy of the for- his name would be placed in nominaeign mission committee of the living tion, within its income."

ed the following recommendation:
"From communications received, it economy and efficiency if all our home mission work could be brought under the direction of the executive com-mittee, and said committee charged with initiation and given larger powers in the prosecution of its work."

"We recommend, therefore, that this matter be referred to such committee erence to the executive committee of publication and Sabbath school work; "That the name of this committee be changed to the 'executive committee of Sabath school work and publication, for the reason that we find a disinclination on the part of some to contribute to the work of this committee, on the ground that our publication work is self-sustaining."

The following recommendations were made in the report regarding the campaign committee on evangelism and

SUCCED CLYCE

stewardship:

"We record our high estimate of the great value as an educational agency of the presbyterial conferences held in connection with the campaign of evangelism and stewardship, and would suggest that the campaign committee consider the advisability of continuing that the assembly was ready for the election of the moderator.

Nominations for Moderator.

Five commissioners were nominated in the following order; Rev. A. M. Fraser, of Staunton, Va., who was nominated by Rev. W. H. Groves; Rev. J. H. Lyons, of Louisville, Ky., by Rev. A. B. Gregory; Rev. W. M. McPheeters, of Columbia, S. C., by Rev, G. B. Strickler; Rev. W. McF, Alexander, of New Orleans, by Rev. T. M. Hunter, and Rev. R. C. Reed, of Columbia, S. C. by Rev. J. E. Wallace, Each of these nominations received a second.

Committee on evangelism and stewardship be continued for another year; that the plan to raise $500,000 for equipment and $500,000 for remforcement be approved and adopted; that the every member canvass in March, 1913, be held, and its promotion and conduct be referred to this committee with power to act; that the distribution of funds to be subscribed for equipment and reinforcement be according to the scheme submitted in the reports of this committee."

Financial Recommendations.

The financial recommendations were as follows for the coming year; For and Rev. R. C. Reed, of Columbia, S. C. by Rev. J. E. Wallace. Each of these nominations received a second. The speeches of nomination and second were hearty and earnest, and were heard with interest.

The ballot was taken verbally, each commissioner announcing his choice for moderator in answer to the calling of the roll.

On motion, it was ordered that at the close of each ballot the nomineer receiving fewest number of yotes be dropped, and this rule was followed. The names of the nominees were the fast salled and after announcing the first precial order.

The financial Recommendations were as follows for the coming year: For foreign missions, $574,560; for home dissions, $287,280; for publication and Sabbath school work, $37,240; for Christian education and ministerial recommendations were as follows for the coming year: For foreign missions, $257,280; for publication and Sabbath school work, $37,240; for Christian education and ministerial recommendations were as follows for the coming year: For foreign missions, $257,280; for publication and Sabbath school work, $37,240; for Christian education and ministerial recommendations were as follows for the coming year: For foreign missions, $257,280; for publication and Sabbath school work, $37,240; for Christian education and ministerial recommendations were as follows for the coming year: For foreign missions, $257,280; for publication and Sabbath school work, $37,240; for Christian education and ministerial recommendations were as follows for the coming year: For foreign missions, $257,280; for publication and Sabbath school work, $37,240; for Christian education and ministerial recommendations were as follows for the coming year. For foreign missions, $257,280; for publication and Sabbath school work, $37,240; for Christian education and ministerial recommendations.

inlister or layman.

J. A. McDonald, of Canada, editor of Dr. Lyons replied with appropriate the Toronto Globe, being the speaker.

ELECTION OF MODERATOR.

Brooks I. Dickey, of San Antonio, Tex., was elected temporary clerk of the assembly, and Rev. Julian S. Sibley, D. D. of Louisville, Ky. was elected reading clerk. The election of the clerks was by acclamation.

It was announced by Rev. T. H. Law, D. D., stated clerk, that the Presbyteries of Cisco and Fort Worth, in the Synod of Texas, had been constituted.

Western, in the Synod of Tennessee, was elected moderator of the Northern had been consolidated under the name of Memphis; also that a new presbytery with the name Tygarts Valley Ky., was chosen moderator by the tery with the name Tygarts Valley had been organized in the Synod of Virginia.

Systematic Beneficence.

Rev. R. O. Flynn, secretary, presented the third annual report of the permanent committee on systematic beneficence, which was adopted. This report contained the following important recommendations regarding the tant recommendations regarding the executive committee of foreign missions.

individuals to any cause, but rather the collistment in behalf of the other commissioners of that body. Until Dr. Stone was placed in nomination, his used means and energies."

To taify Home Mission Work.

Referring to the executive committee

f home missions, the report present
In seconding the nomination, William T. Ellis declared that to clevate

Dr. Stone to the moderatorship would be a wholesome change from the old In seconding the nomination, Wilappears that the work of the executive committee is seriously handiallowed to withdraw his name from

While the combination of these dearthments would be difficult to effect, with 314 votes. His nearest opponent, and might result in temporary distress. Dr. Alexander, polled 227 votes. Four bly this afternoon was an amendment

Listen to a Report of a Pioneer of Petersburg.

One Thousand Dollars is the Value

Boy Scout Stunts To-Day!

Demonstrations by real Boy Scouts in our windows from 10 to 11:30 this morning; 12:30 to 2 and 4 to 5 this afternoon.

Stop by and learn some of the many useful and manly traits every Scout must know.

Some of the Things They Will Do: FIRST AID

Broken thigh. Fracture of upper arm. Emergency sling. Head bandage. Torniquet; cut artery. Torniquet; cut vein.

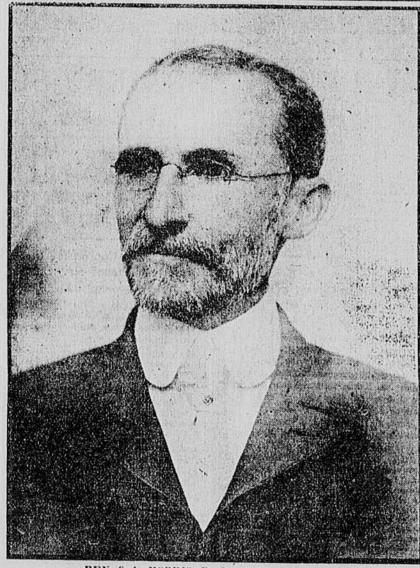

Breaking death grips. Artificial respiration. Hand and flag signals. Knot tying Fire without matches. Semaphore Signal Code. Indian signs and blazes,

In addition to being official outfitters for Boy Scouts, we have everything boys wear, from the gymnasium to the Sunday school.

Great showing in wash suits for the tots---$1.15 to $3.50.

O. H. Berry & Company

Executive Secretary of Home Missions

Dr. Mark A. Matthews, the retiring moderator of the Northern Presby-terian Assembly, in his sermon to-day, spoke of the possibility of an erganic union of all the Presbyterian enurches in America. This, he declared, could be submitted by the proper exercise of "faith." He asserted that he did of "faith." He asserted that he did of "faith." He asserted that he did of "faith." It asserted that he did of the nurses training school. The members of the graduating class of the nurses training school of the nurs

No reference to "union" was made to-ay before the Southern Presbyterian the appears that the work of the executive committee is seriously handicapped, both in administration and funds, by the division of our work into assembly, synodical and local departments.

While the combination of these departments would be difficult to effect.

The leaders." Dr. Stone asked to be allowed to withdraw his name from the election, but the matter was submitted to the assembly, and his name from the election, but the matter was submitted to the assembly, and his name from the election, but the matter was submitted to the assembly, and his name from the election, but the matter was submitted to consider the processing against any action of this character before the presbyteries were permitted to consider the processing against any action of this character before the presbyteries were permitted to consider the processing against any action of this character before the presbyteries were permitted to consider the processing against any action of this character before the presbyteries were permitted to consider the processing against any action of this character before the presbyteries were permitted to consider the processing against any action of the second that the character before the presbyteries were permitted to consider the processing against any action of the second that the character before the processing against any action of the second that the character before the presbyteries.

On the first ballot, Dr. Stone led

REV. S. L. MORRIS, D. D., of Atlanta.

Offered by former Judge McKenzie Cleland, of Chicago, in which he denounced present prison methods. At the conclusion of his address he submitted a resolution, which was adopted, prosoning an investigation by the church the remaining nominees were scattered in both ballots.

Speculation now is rife as to whether or not the joint gatherings of the assembly to make the investigation and of the organizations concur.

Dr. Mark A. Matthews, the retiring all of the organizations concur.

Dr. Mark A. Matthews, the retiring and feed of the organizations concur.

Dr. Mark A. Matthews, the retiring and report to the 1914 assembly of the organizations concur.

Dr. Mark A. Matthews, the retiring and feed of the organizations concur.

Dr. Mark A. Matthews, the retiring and feed of the organizations concur.

Dr. Mark A. Matthews, the retiring and feed of the organizations concur.

Dr. Mark A. Matthews, the retiring and courts system "from the bluescape of the respective presbyteries, we issue at leaf-time the opportunity and duty of the committee, to assist our men and that we likewise issue a leaf-tiet on the work of the missionary commend that we likewise issue a leaf-tiet on the work of the missionary commend that we likewise issue a leaf-tiet on the work of the missionary commend that we likewise issue a leaf-tiet on the work of the missionary commend that we likewise issue a leaf-tiet on the work of the missionary commend that we likewise issue a leaf-tiet on the work of the missionary commend that we likewise issue a leaf-tiet on the work of the missionary commend that we likewise issue a leaf-tiet on the work of the missionary commend that we likewise issue a leaf-tient we li t fully $0,000 were committed to prisons in the United States an-thy. Many of these persons, the Dr. Stone to the moderatorship would be a wholesome change from the old system of putting men forward "by means of astute machinations among the leaders." Dr. Stone asked to be the leaders." Dr. Stone asked to be the leaders." Dr. Stone asked to be the leaders of the leaders ber of persons be kept in prison to carry on the work expected of the in-

Home Missions

has been anticipated with greater in-terest by the Southern terest by the Southern Presbyterlan Assembly than is true this year. The great missionary awakening of the Southern Presbyterian Church during the past year has been an awakening in the interest of home missions as well as foreign missions and the general assembly has never before Set for Three Bottles of Quaker Extract eral assembly has never before re-ceived a report so full of encourage-ment from this department of the church as that submitted this year.

This report shows that from both financial and spiritual standpoints the past year has been the best in the history of the home mission department.

The total contributions desired the given to twenty-five of these presbyteries was in the form of support for presbyterial or pastor evangelist.

During the year "prison work" has been added as a special department under the direction of the home mission committee.

The services of George W. Crabtree have been secured for the work of prison evangelist.

tree have been secured for tha work of prison evangelist.

The mission work in the mountains conducted so ably for many years by Rev. E. O. Guerrant and which has been conducted by Rev. W. E. Hudson since the failure of Dr. Guerrant's death, shows gratifying progress for the year. The committee has maintained in whole or in part forty-two mountain schools, with 128 teachers and intervention is $414,000.

That part of the report dealing with the work of the church is $414,000.

That part of the seport dealing with the work of the church is fit 140.

That part of the seport dealing with the work of the church is fit 140.

The work of the church of the footier reveals the fact that Southern Presby, terlainse has in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico only about 40, 600 communicants, or one to every 200 of their population, which is fully one-fourth of the entire population of the South, the church is growing more inducted by three professors the past year, where sixty-five students have been enrolled, and there is need for one more teacher. This year there were into the church is producted by three professors the past year, where sixty-five students have been enrolled, and there is need for one more teacher. This year there were into the church is producted by three professors the past year, where sixty-five students have been enrolled, and there is need for one more teacher. This year there were into the church is producted by three professors the past year, where sixty-five students have been enrolled, and there is need for one more teacher. This year there were the treesbyterian graduates, and in any thirty colored men were studyling mary thirty colored men were studyling of the production of the color of whith the production of the colored propole. The work of white teachers are the production of the colored propole in Louisville, Ky., Atlanta and Thomps yille, Ga, Richmond, Va, and Memblik

The year just closed has been marked also with larger effort upon the part of the church in the interest of foreigners than ever before, and successful missions have been established among the Italians, Cubans, Bonemians, Hungarians, Russians and Germans at different points throughout the church. The work, which was begun some years ago among the Mexicans, has been continued successfully, and there are now twenty-two churches in the Mexican Presbytery and 1,200 communicants, these being served by four American and six native pastors.

The operation of the Southern Presbyterian Church among the Indians is confined to the Chocta wand Chickasaw tribes in Oklahoma. This work is considered by flye white and plus Chockas and following the adoption of these the confined to the Chocta wand Chickasaw tribes in Oklahoma. This work is conducted by five white and nine Choctaw ministers, and has made decided progress the past year. There are now eighteen churches among the Indians in this territory, and the embership of these churches is 600, including a few white people.

The work of the mission schools in the West has made progress also the past year that is gratifying and that promises much for the future in the educational work of the church.

The total amount expended for home mission work the past year was $151.

798.61. The growth of this work necessitates increased appropriation for next year, and the home mission committee asks for $440,000.

The report of the resolutions committee consumed most of the session, mittee consumed most of the session, mittee consumed most of the session, mittee consumed most of the session, and following the adoption of these the body adjourned.

The association went on record against taxes and licenses levied upon retail merchants, and instructed the legislative committee to do all in its meeting of the General Assembly. The local associations are urged to endeavor to commit candidates for the Legislature to a bill that will bring the reflect sought for.

Public service corporations operating of the commissary stores under the guise of contracts with supposedly independent commissary stores were condemned, and use every means to combat this.

The convention favored good roads and opposed tax on bonds issued for the convention favored good roads and opposed tax on bonds issued for the session.

Atlanta, Ga., May 15.—Decided interest and promise for success, even greater than that already attained by the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Southern Presbyterian Church, is expressed regarding the policy of the movement which was adopted to-day at the closing session of the conference of the Laymen's Movement. The policy is as follows:

"First. We recommend that we hold a conference in every presbytery, in a conference in every presbytery, in the regular fall meet-be held next June in Atlantic City, N. J.

The members of the granuacing class of the nurses training set 50 of the Retreat for the Sick Hospital were last night given public recognition of their years of diligent study when they were presented with diplomas and pins at the commencement exercises in the Elks' Home. At the same time two members of the class of 1912, who were not given diplomas last year, when the illness of the hospital superintendent necessitated the postponement of the formal exercises, received their parchments. The class of 1913 consisted of Misses Beulah Davis,

Proper Care of Hair and Complexion

Scalp-cleanliness means everything

THE LATEST SONG HIT RECORD:

"You Can't Play on Every Instrument in the Band"

(From "The Sunshine Girl.") It's Original-You never heard anything like it before.

It's Sure Funny-You laugh at every word. This, together with "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" and "To Have, to Hold, to Love," compose the three great song hit records of the season. Come in and let us play them for you.

The Corley Company

State Convention Ends Annual Well Known and Popular Real

afternoon after deciding to meet next May at Richmond.

All of the old officers and committees were elected again for the coming year, the principal officers being as follows:

President, Samuel Cohen, Richmond.

First vice-president, M. M. Ramsey,

Special Local Data for Yesterday. consisted of Misses Beulah Davis, Ethel Vaughan Parrish, Anna Watkins, Ruth Hasty, Ruby Clinkscales and Elizabeth Clinkscales. Misses Gibson and Coates represented the class of 1912.

The address to the class was delivered by Thomas P. Bryan, while Dr. W. T. Oppenhimer presented the diplomas and Dr. C. C. Coleman presented the nurses with the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class of the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class pins. A dance and reception followed the example of the class in temperature since March Accumulated excess in temperature since March and the class of 1913.

Excess in temperature since March accumulated excess in tempe

Local Observation 8 P. M. Yesterday. Temperature 68
Humidity 74
Wind—direction S. E.
Wind—velocity 5
Weather Pt. cloudy

MINIATURE ALMANAC. May 16, 1913. HIGH TIDE: Morning ...1:1

DIES SUDDENLY

Estate Man Passes Away at

Hanover Avenue Home. Albert A. Pizzini, well known among

Albert A. Pizzini, well known among the real estate dealers of Richmond, died suddenly at his home, 2114 Hanover Avenue, at 8 o'clock last night. He had been ill for some time, and while he had a very serious attack on Wednesday night, he railied somewhat, so that his death was a great shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Pizzini was the youngest child of the late Captain Andrew Pizzini, Jr., and Mrs. Anna G. Pizzini. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Ella Scott, of this city; his mother, Mrs. Anna G. Pizzini, two brothers—W. B. Pizzini, of Richmond, and Andrew J. Pizzini, of Richmond, and three sisters—Mrs. William McK. Barbour, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. A. M. Paul, of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. George E. Sprague, of Lynn, Mass., Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

Mr. Pizzini was secretary and treasurer of the real estate firm of W. E. Purcell, Jr., Company (Inc.), and was prominent in the business affairs of the city. Because of ill health he had been unable to devote much of his time to his work during the past few months.

Say They Stole Metal.

William Morgan and E. Zimmer were arrested last night by Bicycle Policeman Leiss on the charge of stealing a quantity of zinc and copper from the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

OBITUARY

The work of the mission achools in the West has made progress also the meeting of the General Assembly. The coal associations are urged to endeavor to commit candidates for the past year that is gratifying and that the post year that is gratifying and the clucational work of the church. The total amount expended for home mission work the past year was $151.

The total amount expended for home mission work the past year was $151.

The growth of this work necessitates increased appropriation for roaxly ear, and the home mission committee asks for $140,000.

Policy of Movement

Atlanta. Ga., May 15.—Decided interest and promise for success, even greater than that already attained by the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Southern Prosbyterian Church, is expressed rezarding the policy of the Southern Prosbyterian Church, is as follows:

"First, We recommend that we hold a conference in every presbytery, in a content of the Laymen's Movement. The nolicy is as follows:

"First, We recommend that we hold a conference in every presbytery, in connection with the regular fall meeting of the presbyteries, or at such other time as may be found best, for the purpose of arousing the men to more activity in all lines of Christian work. The decided in the purpose of arousing the men to more activity in all lines of Christian work. The decided in the purpose of arousing the men to more activity in all lines of Christian work. The twentieth annual meeting will be held from the help may be found best, for the purpose of arousing the men to more activity in all lines of Christian work. The purpose of arousing the men to more activity in all lines of foreign missions in the effort in the regular monthly meeting and churches up to a full support of mission graph in the content of the purpose of arousing the men to more activity in all lines of foreign missions in the effort in their interest of the purpose of arousing the men to more activity in all lines of foreign missions in the effort in the purpose of a rousing the men to more son of the late John L. Andrews. Rev. P. A. Cave will conduct the services. The pallbearers are: Active, Captain M. B. Rowe, George W. Perry, C. H. Durrett, F. L. Frazer, H. F. Crismond, Thomas Cammack. Honorary, Thomas A. Frazer, W. W. Micks, Dr. W. A. Harris, Dr. J. W. Massey.

DEATHS

PIZZINI,—Died, suddenly, at his residence, 2114 Hanover Avenue, at 8 P. M., May 15, 1918, ALBERT A. PIZZINI, in the twenty-ninth year of his age. Funeral notice later.

HILL.—Entered into rest at 7 P. M. May the 14th, 1913, at the residence of her husband, Mr. Charles Emmitt Hill, 506 South Pine Street, MRS. ELIZABETH D. HILL, in the fifty-eighth year of her age.

Funeral will take place from Pine Street Baptist Church SATURDAY AFTERNOON, May 17, at 3:30 o'clock. Interment in Riverview Cemetery.

BATES.—Died, 8:45 A. M. Yesterday, at the home of her mother, No. 812 Seminary Avenue, MISS M. ANNIE BATES. Funeral THIS AFTERNOON at 4:30 from the house. Interment in Holly-

MANTLO.—Died, May 15, at 8 o'clock, at her residence, 516 North Twenty-sixth Street, STELLA ELIZABETH, wife of James H. Mantlo, in the thirty-seventh year of her age. Funeral notice later.

TYLER.—Entered into rest, at her residence, 301 East Franklin Street, at 8:15 A. M. May 15, 1912, MRS. ALICE M. TYLER, the daughter of James M. Trice and Catherine Baker, and widow of John Marshall Tyler, Funeral services from her late home, 301 East Franklin, THIS (Friday) MORNING at 12:30. The interment will be private at Woodlawn, in Louisa County, Va.

GARVEY,—Died, in Washington, D. C., May 15, 1913, MRS. MARY GARVEY, Her remains will arrive at the Main Street Station at 12:50 P. M. TO-DAY (Friday-, thence to St. Peter's Church, where service will be held. Interment Mount Calvary.

Ask your undertaker. Price, $50,00, Write for booklet. Reinterring a spe-Cement Burial Vault

Company,

OF RICHMOND, INC., Morning ....1:11 OF RICHMO Evening ....2:50 Phone County 3204.

This report shows that from both fractions of the reality some of the remark quaker Herb Extract is a most wonderful remedy for stomach trouble of all kinds, at was proven in the cases quasing the current should and purchase had curred, she all kinds, at was proven in the cases quasing some of the remark did cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at kinds of the cases quasing some of the remark dust cared, she at the part of the part